HOW BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE ARE MADE

The most beautiful people we have known are those who have known defeat, known suffering, known struggle, known loss, and have found their way out of the depths. These persons have an appreciation, a sensitivity, and an understanding of life that fills them with compassion, gentleness, and a deep loving concern. Beautiful people do not just happen.

In 1914, John Henry Jowett wrote in My Daily Meditation, "At a great orchestral rehearsal, the man who was playing the piccolo stayed his fingers a moment, thinking that his trifling contribution would never be missed. At once Sir Michael raised his hand and said: 'Stop! Where is the piccolo? He missed the individual note.'"

Occasionally, as a boy, I'd accompany my rural missionary father visiting two elderly sisters. Amanda reminded me of Jesus' friend Martha, always busy in the kitchen. But it was not easy for Amanda to prepare food, because her little toe had been amputated as the result of an infection. It was only a little toe, not an arm or a leg, but it affected her balance and she needed to use a cane when walking.

As God has created our bodies with all the necessary parts, so every believer in Christ is a necessary part in the church. None of us should think we are unnecessary to Him. Ask God to show you from His Word and in prayer how you can best serve Him. Then be a faithful "little toe piccolo" for Jesus.

Let not our hearts be busy inns
That have no room for Thee
But cradles for the living Christ
And His Nativity.

Still driven by a thousand cares
The pilgrims come and go;
The hurried caravans press on,
The inns are crowded so!

No room for little helpless hands
For mothers' cries no place;
The great of every land are here,
No room for baby's face.

Here are the rich and busy ones,
With things that must be sold,
No room for simple things within
The hostelry of gold.

Yet hungry dwells within these walls,
There shining walls and bright,
And blindness groping here and there
Without a ray of light.

Oh, lest we starve or lest we die
In our stupidity,
O come, Thou Child, within and share
Our hospitality.

Let not our hearts be busy inns
That have no room for Thee
But cradles for the living Christ
And His Nativity.
