It Matters Not

If matters not if I've been hurt;
It matters not at all
That sometimes from my weary eyes
The scalding teardrops fall.

What matters most - is if I've erred
And not confessed the sin,
And through my lack some needy soul
Has failed to follow Him.

It matters not if cherished friends,
On whom I lean in vain,
Have wounded me by word and deed
And left me with my pain.

What matters is - I can forgive
Again and yet again?
It's not, "Have they been true?" but,
"Lord, have I been true to them?"

It will matter not, when evening comes,
How rough the road I've trod,
If only I have walked with Him
And led some soul to God!

An ecology-conscious teenage boy was talking with his father. "I can't stand all this dirt, pollution and trash!" he shouted.

The man looked at his son for a moment, then coolly replied, "Okay, let's get out of your room and talk somewhere else."

TV - Master or Servant?

A TV set is only a machine-glass, metal wires, and little gadgets-until you place it in your house... In some houses, TV becomes a babysitter for babies of all ages. In other houses, TV is a narcotic, and escape from reality. Or it may be a thief, stealing time, thoughts, friendships, creativity and opportunities for much-needed recreation and companionship. In too few houses, TV is a servant, providing information, insight, commentary on life, news, laughter, music and worthwhile entertainment.

What TV becomes depends on you, the user. If you accept it as a tool, use it sparingly, wisely, and purposefully, it can become a servant. If you accept it as a friend, watch and listen continuously, it will become your master.

What would you take for your Bible if you knew you could not obtain another?
