Well Adjusted

Bud Robinson, the well-known "Holiness preacher", was taken by friends to New York and shown around the city. That night in his prayers he said, "Lord, I thank You for letting me see all the sights of New York. And I thank You most of all that I didn't see a thing that I wanted!" Blessed is the man who can hold loose to the charms of this old world, independent of them because he doesn't want them.

The Pig and the Cow

A pig was lamenting his lack of popularity. He complained to the cow that people were always talking about the cow's gentleness and kind eyes, whereas his name was used as an insult.

The pig admitted that the cow gave milk and cream, but maintained that pigs gave more. "Why," the pig complained, "We pigs give bacon and ham and bristles, and people even pickle our feet. I don't see why you cows are esteemed so much more."

The cow thought awhile and said gently, "Maybe it's because we give while we're still living"
