Philippians 1:24-26

²⁴ Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

²⁵ And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

²⁶ That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

Repeat these verses to yourself this week, and put them in your memory:

M - 25 T - 20 W - 15 Th - 10 F - 5 S - 1

A cartoon once depicted a little school boy standing outside a sweets shop. The window was filled with jars of candy. On the window was a sign that said, "Do not lick the window."

We smile, but are there not many Christians standing outside the storehouse of God's provision, wistfully wondering how they can make all these good things theirs? Don't stand outside Go on in! See Romans 8:32.

Many years ago, an aged lady left Buffalo by boat to visit a daughter living in Cleveland. Soon a dreadful storm arose and many of the passengers, fearing death, gathered for prayer. Only the aged lady seemed unconcerned, as she sat with her hands folded and prayed.

After the storm passed, the passengers eagerly asked the secret of her calmness. They gathered around as she replied, "Well, it's like this; I have two daughters. One died and went home to heaven. The other moved to Cleveland. When the storm arose, I wondered which of them I might visit first. I just left it to the Lord, for I am glad to see either."

See Phil. 1:23 and Rev. 14:13.
